Attachment : Memorandum for the IAC and Chairmen,
IAC Subcommittees from Secretary, IAC,
22 June 1956

1. Through the attached memorandum, and documents referenced therein, the IAC agencies and subcommittees have been advised of the requirement that the DCI submit the annual report on the status of the foreign intelligence program to the President and National Security Council no later than 15 August.

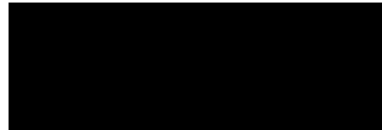

2. As a component of CIA, your office is also requested to submit an appropriate contribution to the annual report. In general, the attached memorandum may also serve as a guide with respect to the form, substance and scheduling of your contribution. Additional copies of any documents referenced in the memorandum may be obtained through the IAC Secretariat.

3. It is suggested that, wherever pertinent, the chairman of any IAC subcommittee under your cognizance be consulted in the preparation of your report. Wherever feasible, a consolidated contribution would be preferable.
